Description :

PDF-fc710 | In the United States, as in many parts of the world, people are discriminated against based on the color of their skin. This type of skin tone bias, or colorism, is both related to and distinct from discrimination on the basis of race, with which it is often conflated. Preferential treatment of lighter skin tones over darker occurs within racial and ethnic groups as well as between them. While Ame... Color Matters: Skin Tone Bias and the Myth of a Postracial America (New Directions in American History)
