Description :

PDF-157f3 | For a real bargain, while you're making a living, you should make also a life.--Aaron Bronson. In 1920, in small town America, the ubiquitous dry goods store--suits and coats, shoes and hats, work clothes and school clothes, yard goods and notions--was usually owned by Jews and often referred to as "the Jew store."

That's how Stella Suberman's father's store, Bronson's Low-Priced Store, in Concord... The Jew Store
