Description :

PDF-5d452 | The epic struggle for black equality in the twentieth century, told through the deeply intertwined life histories of the staunch segregationist and his sharecropper nemesis. Sunflower County, Mississippi, is a land of seeming contradictions. It boasts some of the world's richest soil, yet has produced widespread poverty that lingers to this day. It stood at the epicenter of the civil rights movement... The Senator and the Sharecropper: The Freedom Struggles of James O. Eastland and Fannie Lou Hamer
