Description :

PDF-2cc70 | In parts of West Africa, some babies and toddlers are considered spirit children?nonhumans sent from the forest to cause misfortune and destroy the family. These are usually deformed or ailing infants, the very young whose births coincide with tragic events, or children who display unusual abilities. In some of these cases, families seek a solution in infanticide. Many others do not. Refusing to ... Spirit Children: Illness, Poverty, and Infanticide in Northern Ghana (Africa and the Diaspora: History, Politics, Culture)
