Description :

PDF-fd395 | An African American folk saying declares, "Our God can make a way out of no way.... He can do anything but fail."

When Dianne Swann-Wright set out to capture and relate the history of her ancestors?African Americans in central Virginia after the Civil War?she had to find that way, just as her people had done in creating a new life after emancipation. In order to tell their story, she could not... A Way Out of No Way: Claiming Family and Freedom in the New South (The American South Series)
